

Advent Parish Mission:
“Becoming a Holy Family”

December 1,2,3, 2009:

Following 6:30 pm mass in the Church

Come join us for 3 nights focusing on the family and the many struggles it faces in the world today. This Mission will focus specifically on issues involving parenting small children, “tweens”, and teens as well as focus on ways to strengthen and enrich marriages and the family as a whole.

Featuring Speaker: Kevin Whelan

Kevin Whelan is a husband, father of six and a business professional. After learning Theology of the Body for his work in youth ministry, he became convinced of its value for older men. He shares personal reflections on the Catholic Exchange Web site and is now featured regularly on the Paul’s Men Podcast.

Kevin is from a family of 12; his father was an Air Force officer, so he grew up throughout America. Kevin is a graduate of Montgomery Catholic High School in Alabama and of Spring Hill College in Mobile Alabama. He also holds an MBA from Robinson School of Business at Georgia State University in Atlanta. Kevin was active in Life Teen for over 15 years as both a core member, youth minister, writer and speaker. He is a Boy Scout and Cub Scout leader. He loves camping, hiking, and white water kayaking.
